

Governor Chase and other friends were

Miss Flora Greenstreet entertained

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron H. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Wallace and Mr. and Mrs. Harold laylor will give a large reception, Tuesday

Mrs. John R. Pearson and Mrs. Horace

Mrs. E. B. McOuat will entertain ber

Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Frankem have issued

Rushville: Misses Etta and Lucy Martin, of Shelbyville, Ill.: Mr. John C. McMillin, of Chicago, and Mrs. M. Williams, of Cincin-nati. Mr. and Mrs. Macdonald will be at home to their friends at No. 24 Fort Wayne avenue after Dec 7.

The Dramatic Club gave their first entertainment of the season last evening, in the assembly hall of the Propylaum. The committee, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. R. Seguin, Mr. Henry Atkins and Mr. John W. Chis-lett, had the affair in charge, and carried it through with great success. The it through with great success. The play-

Mr. Apel, of Lexington, Ky., is spending

Mrs. Howsman, of Illinois, is visiting her

Miss Ella Pitcher, of Franklin, Ind., is visiting Mrs. Will Mulendore.

Miss Mary Thomas was the gue of Miss Field, in Indianapolis, on Monda daughter, Mrs. O. P. Hay.

Penmanship is said to express character. | Mason, the prominent lawyer and dean o and persons say that to know one's handwriting is to know one. The fashion in entertained at dinner Friday evening, by Col. and Mrs. W. T. Royse. A pleasant handwriting changes, as do the styles in dress, though, perhaps, with less freevening was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Millikan will cele-brate the first anniversary of their mar-riage at their home, on North Meridian street, Thursday, Dec. 8. quency. One season the superscription nearly covers the envelope, and the next most of it could be screened by a postage stamp. These varieties of writing are friends yesterday afternoon with an in-formal reception in honor of her guest, Miss Rusher, of Boston. usually affected by young women. One who uses two styles of stationery writes differently for each. One style has Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Leopold will cele-brate the twentieth anniversary of their violets stamped in one corner. With this she writes a small, fine, coppermarriage to-night, at their residence, No. 277 South Delaware street. plate style, each letter correctly formed; the other kind is plain paper, and large, careless letters are the result. Another young woman, who used to use a stub pen evening, at the Propylanm. and make great sprawling letters, was con-A delightful event of the past week was a surprise party given Monday by Mr. Har-ry Knowles to his wife, it being the fourth anniversary of their marriage. verted by means of a gift. It was a gold pen, and she was so delighted with it that she wanted to use it all the time, it being a fine point. The large letters were not at Smith will give a card party Tuesday after-noon, and with their mother, Mrs. Dickson, a coffee party Wednesday afternoon. all proportioned, so she gradually made them smaller and smaller, and those who knew it before have to become reasquaintfriends Wednesday afternoon, from 8 to 6 ed with her notes. Another young woman o'clock, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. John W. Holcomb, of Washington, D. C. prides herself that no one writes a band similar to hers, and her correspondents are invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Helen Gray, to Mr. Leon Donehoo of Allegheny. Pa., at 12:30 o'clock Thursday glad that it is so. One friend to whom she writes says "her chirography looks like a box of vermicelli just opened, and further-Tuesday evening a number of friends surprised Mr. William H. Hagerhorst, at his residence, No. 102 Park avenue. The evening was pleasantly passed in dancing and playing cards. the drift of the letter and lets the rest of it go, and openly declares that if he asked her to read the letter herself one month from date that she could not do it. The The marriage of Miss Harriet Ohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ohr, and Mr. James Josephs, of Chicago, will take place Wednesday evening, at the family residence, on North Meridian street. address on an envelope sent by her is so spread cut that there is scarcely room for the stamp. There is a man connected with one of the popular weekly pub-Mr. Lewis Kriel has issued invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Ella Eliza-beth, and Charles Oscar Prutzman, to take place Wednesday, Dec. 7, at the family residence, No. 898 North Illinois street. The reception will follow from 8 to 10 o'clock. At home cards are for after Jan. 1, at No. 811 East Charles street, Muncie. lications who claims he can describe one's characteristics by their letters, and each week in the paper is a list of a column or more of description made from a sample paragraph of handwriting. The fad of writing on the pages hit or miss makes the writer's expressions often very queer when one is inclined to read the old-fashioned book style in regular succession. Whether one can read character or not, the writing of one's friends is an interesting study. The first open day of the Matinee Musicale will be Wednesday, in the assembly hall of the Propylæum. A song recital will be given by Mrs. Genevra Johnston-Bishop, a vocalist who has sung with the Seidl and Nikisch orchestras, which is sufficient guarantee of her excellence. Those not holding invitations are admitted for a small fee.

Personal Mention. Miss Nelle Gabel has returned from New Miss Sadie Clarke will leave to-morrow The Contemporary Club will meet Wednesday evening at the Propyleum. J. Laurence Laughlin, Ph. D., head professor of political economy in the University of Chicago, will address the club on the subject, "Political Economy and Christianity." The reception committee includes Mr. and Mrs. David Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Sewall.

Mr. C. T. Pearce, of Kentucky, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. S. R. Seguin. Mrs. D. T. Bacon has gone East to visit relatives for two or three weeks. Miss Ella Ewry, of Lafayette, will be the guest, this week, of Miss Lucy Hamilton,

Mr. W. D. Heise, of Joliet, 1s the guest of Mr. W. H. Armstrong's family, on North

Mrs. Post has returned from the East, and is spending the winter at No. 275 North Mr. J. C. Haile, wife and son Clarence, of Cincinnati, spent Thanksgiving with Dr.

B. Ward's family. Mr. B. W. Lyon, who came from St. Louis to spend a few days with Professor Belcher, will return home to-day.

Miss Laura Wadsworth, of LaPorte, is a guest of Professor Beleber's family, on North Pennsylvania street. Miss Margaret Bartholomew, of DePanw University, is the guest of Miss Cora Field, of North Pennsylvania street.

Mrs. John W. Holcomb, of Washington, D. C., who is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. B. McOust, will return home Friday.

Prof T. G. Alford and family and Prof. Fred Mason Amadon, of Purdue University, visited Dr R. H. Bigger last week. Miss M. L. Putnam, of Boston, Mass., is spending the winter with the family of F. M. Spaulding, 67 East Seventh street.

Miss M L. Putnam, of Boston, Mass., is spending the winter with the family of F. M. Spaulding, 67 East Seventh street.

Mrs. Etta Neel, of Mattoon, Ill., visited friends in this city this week. She was accompanied by her little niece, Doris Lindsay.

Mrs. E. S. Swift and daughter Avis have arrived from Portland, Ore., to join Mr. Swift, who has returned here for permanent residence.

Mrs. Will D. Massey (nee Speer), after spending several weeks in this city, the guest of her parents, has returned to her home in Springfield, Mo.

Miss Marian Rexford has returned to her home, after four months in Colorado, and Mrs. Etta Neel, of Mattoon, Ill., visited friends in this city this week. She was accompanied by her little niece, Doris Lind-Mrs. E. S. Swift and daughter Avis have arrived from Portland, Ore., to join Mr. Swift, who has returned here for perma-

Mrs. Will D. Massey (nee Speer), after spending several weeks in this city, the guest of her parents, has returned to her home in Springfield, Mo.

home, after four months in Colorado, and several weeks' visit in St. Louis. Mo. Mrs. Wilbur Conover, of Piqua, O., is the guest of Miss Rexford.

John G. Williams, vice-president and general manager of the Vandaha lines, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Major Crawford and Mrs. Tuell of Terre Haute, spent Thanks-giving day with Mr. and Mrs. John B.

Mr. Samuel C. Meredith, father of Capt. W. M. Meredith, chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, will to-day celebrate the eighty-fifth auniversary of his birth. He was for many years in the employ of the Journal, but long since retired from the active pursuits of business. Notwithstanding his eighty-five years, he possesses more than usual activity and energy. Society Events.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Appel entertained the North-end Whist Club last night. Mrs. George E. Townley will entertain a few friends Wednesday at luncheon. Mrs. T. A. Lewis has issued cards for a reception Thursday, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Miss Margaret Barry will give a reception to-morrow afternoon, from 3 to 5 o'clock. The Ideals will give their second ball of the season at Tombinson Hall next Thursday evening. Miss Winifred Stiles entertained the Sothern Enchre Club very pleasantly Fri-evening for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten and Aid Society.

Mrs. Horace Eddy was the hostess yester-day for a luncheon at her pretty home in Woodruff Place.

The first section of the Free Kindergarten and Children's Aid Society will entertain Friday at Mrs. George E. Townley's. No. 310 Broadway. There will be the usual afternoon reception, and in the evening, from S to 12 o'clock, a programme of music, cards and dancing. For the former Miss Cooper, Miss May Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Wade and Mr. Geiger will assist. The heads of the section are Mrs. T. E. Griffith and Mrs. John W. Kern. assisted by Mesdames G. E. Townley, W. D. Cooper, T. K. Taggart, Henry Severin, A. S. Anderson, W. W. Wooilen, W. H. Smith, J. W. Chipman, G. K. Share, Fredlappel, James P. Baker, Samuel Taylor, G. W. Beck, Jackson Landers, W. P. Noble, Dr. Rawls, C. E. Coffin, James Harper, Stella Anderson, W. C. Griffith, W. H. Miller, F. M. Herron, Simeon Carey, Charles Reese, D. L. Whittier, O. G. Pfaff, E. A. Grover, Jasen Carey, J. W. Bryan, H. R. Allen, H. Schurmann, A. M. Robertson, Claude Griffith, F. Albert, W. H. Henly, C. B. Foster, A. B. Grover, Ovid Butler, Lynn Stone, J. E. McCullough, Anna Webster, J. A. Craig, A. J. Decker, J. W. Campbell, J. O. Henderson, Joseph Wade, S. R. Sweet, B. B. Peck, George Bliss, M. L. Hare, Galbraith, A. G. Smith, W. K. Bellis, H. C. Newcomb, Albert, Gall, jr., Fred Ellison, W. H. Hobbs, John McFee, H. Malpas, T. A. Randall, Alexander Ayres, William Burford, Horner V. Lockwood, G. W. Lender, Geo. Wright, John T. Dye, Anna Mavity, Frank Van Camp, C. B. Holloway, R. L. Talbott, jr., John Pearson, Horace Smith, Merrick Vinton, John Todd, Preston Bowman, Carson Sperry and P. M. Gallahue and Miss Hamilton and Miss Patterson. The "Jokers" were very pleasantly en-tertained by Mr. and Mrs. Thos. G. Smiley The Chapel Club will meet with Mrs. Ebert, 570 North Pennsylvania street, Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 30.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Stout have issued invitations for a reception Dec. 9, with the cetillion at 10 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sayles enter-tained quite a party of friends very hand-somely Friday evening at cards.

Mrs. Louis Hollweg was the hostess yes-terday afternoon for a handsome coffee party, at her home on North Meridian

Mrs. William F. Mason will give a break-fast party at the Propyleum Thursday morning, at 12 o'clock, in honor of Miss

The Gomen Club was delightfully enter-tained last Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Byron Hutchinson, of North Tennes-

Miss Cora Field entertained a number of her friends, Friday evening, at progressive einque, in honor of her guest, Miss Bar-tholomew.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Heeb entertained a number of friends at dinner Thanksgiv-ing day, at their home, No. 843 North Del-

The ladies of the "Coterie" entertained their husbands Friday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Dollmetch with pro-The engagement is announced of Miss Annie Porter, only daughter of Hon. A. G. minister to Italy, and Mr. Augustus Lynch has been visiting Mass Moore for several

Mrs. Harpount, of Franklin, is visiting the family of her daughter, Mrs. Will Mr. William Iden has built on Cherry street and the family will occupy their new days, returned home on Wednesday of last home this week. Prof. O. P. Hay, who is engaged in teaching in Chicago this winter, spent last week with his family. Mrs. J. O. Cutts gave a small dinner party on Thanksgiving day to some of the Penn-sylvania students. Dr. John Daugherty, who removed from Irvington to Riverside, Cal., some time ago, is back on a visit. Mr. Galven and family expect to take up their residence for the winter in Irvington. They will occupy the Solliday property. Mr. and Mrs Thomas Howe will return to-morrow from Kokomo, where they have been spending Thanksgiving with Mrs.

Howe's parents. The most noticeable thing about Irving-ton at present is the large number of new houses which are going up. The most prominent of these are the church building and the large brick block at the terminus of the street-car line. Both these buildings will soon be completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Givens, who have been visiting Professor and Mrs. Bruner, at the home of Professor Iden, returned to their home in Des Moines the early part of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Givens were en route from Germany, where Mrs. Givens has been studying music for the past two years.

THE STATE AT LARGE.

Matter intended for this column must be in this office not later than 6 p.m., Saturday; items received after that hour will not be used.]

Mr. and Mrs. George Ballard returned
Friday from a pleasant visit at Elwood...
Mr. and Mrs. S. Metcalf spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Carver, at Irvington...Mrs. W. Kline and son John, of West Senora, O., are guests of anderson friends...Thomas McMahan and family spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Elwood...Miss Maggie McClure, of Brookville, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McClure...Mr. and Mrs. Walter Biddle were guests of Franklin friends Thanksgiving... guests of Franklin friends Thanksgiving Miss Ethel Blake is at Fort Wayne attending the Y. P. S. C. E. convention... Misses Effic Nelson and Dess Coburn ate turkey with Alexandria friends Thursday Miss Celeste Ballard attended a ball at Elwood Celeste Ballard attended a ball at Elwood Thursday evening... Miss Ella Barnard, of Kokomo, is visiting her brother Morris and family... Misses Bertie Koons and Grace Commack returned to Muncie Thursday evening after a very pleasant visit with Miss Maud Suman... Mr. and Mrs. John Seften are visiting iriends in this city... Miss Anna Tonan is visiting friends at Muncie... Mr. Ward Taylor and Miss Margaret Phipps, of Pendleton, were in the city Tuesday night... Miss Gussie Culbertson and Miss Fannie Woods, of Knightstown, are visiting Miss Mattie Tinney... Miss Fannie Scott spent Thursday with friends at Frankton... Miss Kate Kahan, of Union City, was visiting Miss Kate McGraw last week... Miss Eva Byers, of Indianapolis, is the guest of Anderson friends... Miss Mame Cokefair left Wednesday for Columbus, O., to visit Adda Bosworth, who is there attending school... Frank Metzner spent Thursday with Richmond friends... Mrs. Jessie Forkner and daughter. Miss Kate, are visiting Alexandria friends... Mrs. Jessie Forkner and daughter. Miss Kate, are visiting Alexandria friends... Miss Lillie Hayden, of Benton Harbor, Mich, is expected here in a few days to visit Miss June Johnson... Mrs. H. C. Ryan was the guest of Pendleton friends Friday... Misses Inez Cole and Minnie Monerey, of Pendleton, lattended the "Entre Nous" dance Friday night... Mrs. C. L. Henry was at Indianapolis Friday. hursday evening....Miss Ella Barnard, of "Political Economy and Christianity." The reception committee includes Mr. and Mrs. George F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Sewall.

A bowling club has been organized, and the alley on North Meridian street has been secured for each Monday evening. The members are Messrs. Benj. D. Walcott, Henry S. Fraser, Clarence Wulsin, Robert Martindale. Agustus Coburn, Joseph Herod, J. K. Sharpe, jr., Merrick Vinton, William Taylor, William Pirtle Herod, C. C. Foster and Lynn Martindale. The members are privileged to take ladies.

Mrs. Tennis gave a handsome party yesterday afternoon at the Propyleum for her son Alva and his friend and guest, Mr. Dolphine Slattery, of Cincinnati. Nearly seventy young people enjoyed the pleasures of the afternoon. The two spacious parlors were used. In the west parlor was Hart's orchestra, which played for dancing. In the east parlor refreshments were served. The room was tastefully adorned with pink roses, The table was festooned with smilax and roses, and across one corner was the design of a racquet made of pink chrysanthemums. The whole entertainment was graceful, and much enjoyed by those who were honored with invitations.

The marriage of Miss Lucretia Frances McMillin denyters of Mrs. Loretia Frances Miss Care Lusk was in Lafayette, svisiting per sister, Mrs. Actica Green spent last week in Chicago....Mr. and Mrs. Alice Green spent last week in Chicago....Mrs. Actica Green when the visiting her sister, Mrs. Actica Green when the visiting her sister, Mrs. Act

Mrs. Lou Greene was in Louisville last week...Mrs. C. Palmer and Miss Cora Newland are visiting in Sultivan...Miss Anna Miller is visiting in Jeffersonville...

Mrs. Anna Bridweil, of Bloomington, is visiting in this city...Miss Fannie Layton is visiting in Mitchell...Mrs. Grant Bailey returned from Bloomington Thursday, after spending several days with relatives...

Misses Mary Erwin and Mary Alexander spent Thanksgiving at Mitchell...Mrs. Mary Schrader, of New Albany, who has been in our city for several days, went to Bloomington Wednesday to visit friends.

Mrs. Cole is visiting friends at Hopewell...Mrs. J. W. Simmons has returned from Liucoln, Ill...Mrs. Walter Bradfute spent Thanksgiving with her parents near Sheridan...Mrs. James Ryan is visiting her daughter at Shoals...The marriage of A. E. Faris and Miss Mame Brodix was solemnized Tuesday morning at the home of the bride, Rev. W. R. Halstead performing the ceremony. They are now visiting friends at Chicago and Mansfield, O.... Miss Cora Dodds has returned from an extended visit at Chattanoga, Tenn...Mr. and Mrs. Harry Eakin have moved into their new home on South Dunn street. it through with great success. The players gave excellent performances, and were complimented by every one. The first play was "The Marble Arch," with Miss Brownie Butler as Mrs. Merriweather, Miss May Armstrong as Constance Cameron, Mr. James Leathers as Mr. Merriweather, and Mr. Arthur B, Grover as Captain Trentham! The last play was "My Uncle's Will," with Miss Claire Shover as Florence Marigold, Mr. Walter Williams as Mr. Barker, and Mr. Horace Hord as Edward Cashmore. After the play refreshments were served and there was an informal dance. The plays will be repeated publicly Mcnday evening for the benefit of the Free Kindergarten and Aid Society. INDIANA UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Frank Hatfield, a former law student, has been spending the week with old college associates....Professor Couch, formerly connected with the law department. merly connected with the law department, has returned to Cincinnati to remain...It is the intention, during the holidays, to overhaul the heating apparatus of Wylie and Owen halls....Dr. Karsten is completing his cottage on East Third street....A. W. Massett, a former student, but now State Senator from the Grayville, Ill., district, has been spending the week in the city.... M. A. Sims, of Columbus, spent the last of the week with college friends. He is a graduate of the class of '87....Henry Nuckols, of the senior class, has been re-elected manager of the University Co-operative Association....The second entertainment of the lecture course will be given Tuesday night by the Philharmonic Ciub.... The board of trustees, at their last meeting, appointed Dr. Coulter and Trustees Corrand Lyons an auditing committee to look after the financial affairs of the institution.

Miss Lucia Knight was in Indianapolis last week...Mrs. V. B. Bush, of Pittsfield, Ill., is in the city....W. A. Mitchell and wife, of Indianapolis, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Probe, of Richmond, are in the city....Mrs. A. Shoemaker, of Terre Hante, is visiting Mrs. C. P. Eppertt...Mrs. J. T. Grines, of Crawfordsville, is visiting Samuel Grines...Mrs. S. Frinklester, of Indianapolis, is visiting Mrs. Harry Joseph....Arthur W. Davis and Miss Blanche Carpenter were married at the residence of the bride's father, William Carpenter, at Coverland, Friday evening...Miss Fannie Coverland, Friday evening Miss Fannie

The Great MILLINERY SALE will begin to-morrow, noticed below.

The advance opening of Holiday Goods begins this week. The offering of the big CLOAK STOCK, which has just closed out from two of the largest manufacturers in New York, and the great offering of FURS, will, altogether, make this a big week at WASSON'S.

BONNETS.

Trimmed and Untrimmed.

FEATHERS TIPS AND FLOWERS,

ABOUT 25c ON THE DOLLAR.

To-morrow we will put on sale our big purchase of millinery goods, consisting of Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats and Bonnets, Feathers, Ostritch Tips, Alpine Walking-Hats, Bedford Cord Sailors, Tam O'Shanters, etc. We bought these goods at a sacrifice on account of the lateness of the season, and now you can buy them at about one-fourth their value.

be opened. Here you will find articles suitable for Christmas Gifts, such as China and Bisque

Wares, Toilet Cases, Manicure Sets, Fancy Mirrors, Smoking Sets, Shaving Sets, Dolls by the Pictures, Etchigs, Alphabet Blocks, Candelabra,

Candlesticks, Wagons, Broomholders, Lamps,

Tables, Clocks and hundreds of other articles.

them laid away for Christmas.

500 Untrimmed Hats, $1 quality,

600 Hats, $1.50 quality, at 57c.
1 lot Feathers, regular price 25c,

1 lot Feathers, 50c quality, at 18c. 75c Feathers at 27c. 1 lot Feathers, former price $1 to $1.50 each, now 43c. $2 and $2.50 quality Feathers now

1 lot 7-inch Ostrich Tips, colors and black, 29e a bunch. Silk Top Alpine Walking-Hats, regular price all season has been $2, now 98c. 1 lot Bedford Cord Sailor Hats

1 lot American Beauty Rosebuds, long rubber stems, regular price 50c,

CLOAK SALE

This week our Cloak Department will be like & great cloak wareroom. Here will be the immense stock just closed out from two of the largest manu-

This entire stock will be open and ready for sale

This entire stock will be open and ready for sale
by 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Here are Cloaks from $3.75 up to $9.75 that formerly sold at from $6.50 to $18.

Here are the latest winter styles in English topcoats, in Fur Beavers, Fine Kerseys, Camel's-hair Serges, Himalaya Cloth and Clay Diagonals.

Embroidered Velvet Mantles, Camel's-hair Mantles, Sicilian Mantles, Fur-lined Circulars and long Coats with Capes.

100 Manufacturers' Sample Cloaks, former price
$75 to $125, to-morrow the price will be from $40

CHILDREN'S CLOAKS

IN GREAT VARIETY.

Full Fur Shawl Roll Ladies' Ready-Made Dresses Reefer, $5.75.

To-morrow we will offer another lot of those Russian Blouse Suits at

See the finer Blouse Suits at $9, the Marlowe Suits at $12.

FUR CAPES—

Our Great Fur Department will lead all other departments in our store this week with its great variety of seasonable goods.

See the big stock of Fur Capes from 18 inches long to 34 inches long prices from $3.50 to $325 each. Here are the choicest Alaska Sealskin Capes, also Natural Beaver, Otter, Mink, Electric Seal, Monkey, Astrakhan, Sable, Hare.

Another lot of those Feather Boas, 21 yards long, at 95c.

A big lot of Feather Collars, usually sold at 75c, now 39c.

Our new Blanket Department, in the basement, offers the greatest variety of bed coverings ever shown in Indianapolis.

special qualities in Blankets, To-morrow our Holiday Department will from the lowest to the finest grades.

blankets, $1.79. All-wool scarlet, $2.97.

All wool white, $3.95. Super wool, white, scarlet thousand, Toys, Block Games, Mechanical Toys, and silver gray, $5.

> In this department you will also find the Bed Comforts. Here are cotton-filled comforts at 69c, 90c and $1.

Here are the Sea-Island Cotton Comforts at from $2.25 Call early, make your selections, and have to $4.90 each, in covers of choice designs.

Eiderdown Comforts, with fine sateen covers, at $4.50 to the newest shapes and latest colors. $5.90 each; with silk covers, at from $10 to $15.

UNDERWEAR

The great sale of winter Under-wear and Hosiery this week will offer you an extraordinary oppor-tunity to supply yourself for the Here is a stock large enough to supply any two wholesale houses in

Over 200 feet of counter room will be used for the display and sale of

Here are goods for men, women, boys and girls, children and infants, in prices from 9c a garment to the finest goods made in lamb's wool and camel's hair. These goods are all conveniently arranged on the counters and marked in plain figures, so that though the crowd is ever so great you can make your own selections.

HOLIDAY KID GLOVES

To-morrow our great stock, which was bought for the holidays, will in part be ready for your inspection.

Here are gloves suitable for party, theater, reception or street wear, in Besides these, our offering of warm gloves, such as lined kid gloves, cash-mere and wool gloves and mittens, for ladies, gents and children.

II II DOUT & OUT. I. WADDUNG OUT. P. WADDUNG OU

This week we offer some 1 lot of Blankets at 63 cts Extra size wool-mixed gray